Articles of Association of Wycliffe Hall

BACKGROUND

A. Wycliffe Hall and Ridley Hall were established as theological institutions or halls pursuant to an indenture dated 30th April 1877 (the ‘Indenture’) which governed both Halls to provide “supplementary theological instruction in conformity with the principles of and in close connexion with the Protestant Reformed Church of England to candidates for ordination and … to afford an economical residence for such candidates for ordination as having graduated give good promise of becoming faithful and able Ministers of the Gospel.” The Principles set out in Article 3 below were formulated in the context and language of the issues of the day.

B. The Indenture was varied by Charity Commission Schemes dated 31st July 1997 (the ‘Schemes’).

C. Wycliffe Hall and Ridley Hall, although both governed by the indenture, have been registered as separate charities with the Charity Commission for England and Wales. Each is governed by a Council, who are the charity trustees of the relevant unincorporated charity.

D. The charitable company governed by these Articles of Association is established to act as one of two corporate successors to the unincorporated charities. It is intended to hold the properties relating to Wycliffe Hall which before the incorporation of the company have been vested in trustees for the time being appointed pursuant to the Indenture and to receive a transfer of the undertaking of the unincorporated charity and its assets, subject any liabilities, relating to the theological institution known as Wycliffe Hall in Oxford (registered charity number 309703).

E. It is intended that a separate charitable company will be established to receive properties and other assets which relate to Ridley Hall in Cambridge and that the two Halls will in future exist as separate charities with separate constitutions, except insofar as these Articles of Association provide for ongoing links between the two Halls.

INTERPRETATION

1. Defined terms

The interpretation of these Articles is governed by the provisions set out in the Schedule at the end of the Articles.

OBJECTS AND POWERS

2. Objects

2.1 The objects of the Hall are to provide theological instruction consistent with the principles of the Church of England to candidates for ordination and, subject thereto, to provide theological education (with a preference for individuals who are undertaking a course of study in theology or who have been ordained).

2.2 In carrying out its objects the Hall may provide accommodation for students.

3. Principles

3.1 The Principles on which the Hall was founded are those expressed in the Thirty-nine Articles of the Church of England, with special stress laid upon the following particulars, viz:–

3.1.1 The Atonement. – That the 2nd and 31st Articles of the Church of England are to be accepted in their plain and literal sense.

3.1.2 Justification. – That the 11th Article of the Church of England be accepted in its plain and literal sense with special reference to the following extract from the Homily of the Salvation of Mankind therein alluded to ‘Faith doth not shut out repentance hope love dread and fear of God to be joined with faith in every man that is justified but it shutteth them out from the office of justifying.’

3.1.3 The Sacraments. – That Sacraments ordained of Christ have a wholesome effect or operation in such only as worthily receive the same.

(a) Baptism. – That the doctrine of the necessary communication of inward and spiritual grace to the subject of Baptism by the administration of that Sacrament is not to be inferred from the Articles and Formularies of the Church of England.

(b) The Lord’s Supper. – That in the Lord’s Supper the Bread and Wine are only the sign or sacrament of and do not in any sense whatever contain the Body and Blood of Christ which are taken and received by believing communicants alone and by them only after a spiritual manner.

3.1.4 The Ministry. – That the office of Ministers of Christ is as stated in the Form of Ordering of Priests, that is of Messengers Watchmen and Stewards of the Lord and that it does not authorise them to offer propitiatory sacrifices or to pronounce in any judicial sense as standing in the place of God but only in a declaratory or precatory sense the absolution and remission of sins.

3.1.5 The Holy Scriptures. – That the Holy Scriptures were written by inspiration of God and are to be taken as the sole standard of religious truth in the plain sense of the 6th Article of the Church of England.

15.2 a decision taken in accordance with Article 20.
16. Reserved decisions

16.1 The following decisions may only be made if the Trustees for the time being nominated by Ridley Hall, having consulted with Ridley Hall, agree to the decision, or if there are no Trustees for the time being nominated by Ridley Hall, if all of the Trustees (except for any Trustee who is prevented from taking part in the decision by virtue of Article 21) unanimously agree to the decision:

16.1.1 a decision to relocate the Hall’s main campus outside the Oxford city limits;

16.1.2 a decision to sell or transfer (whether for consideration or not) the whole or a substantial part of the Hall’s undertaking to any third party; and

16.1.3 a decision to dissolve or wind up the Hall in accordance with Article 40.

17. Calling a Trustees’ meeting

17.1 The Chair may (and must at the request of the nearest whole number greater than one-third of the Trustees) call a Trustees’ meeting. If the Chair fails to call a Trustees’ meeting when requested in accordance with this Article, then the nearest whole number greater than one-third of the Trustees may call a meeting.

17.2 A Trustees’ meeting must be called by at least seven Clear Days’ notice unless either:

17.2.1 all the Trustees agree; or

17.2.2 the Chair (in his or her discretion), or the Trustees calling the meeting (if it is a meeting called by the Trustees in accordance with Article 17.1), decide that urgent circumstances require shorter notice.

17.3 Notice of Trustees’ meetings must be given to each Trustee.

17.4 Every notice calling a Trustees’ meeting must specify:

17.4.1 the place, day and time of the meeting;

17.4.2 the general nature of the business to be considered at such meeting; and

17.4.3 if it is anticipated that Trustees participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.

17.5 Notice of Trustees’ meetings need not be in Writing.

17.6 Article 32 shall apply, and notice of Trustees’ meetings may be sent by Electronic Means to an Address provided by the Trustee for the purpose.

18. Participation in Trustees’ meetings

18.1 Subject to the Articles, Trustees participate in a Trustees’ meeting, or part of a Trustees’ meeting, when:
18.1.1 the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the Articles; and

18.1.2 they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting (for example via telephone or video conferencing).

18.2 In determining whether Trustees are participating in a Trustees’ meeting, it is irrelevant where any Trustee is or how they communicate with each other.

18.3 If all the Trustees participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

19. Quorum for Trustees’ meetings

19.1 At a Trustees’ meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.

19.2 The quorum for Trustees’ meetings shall be the nearest whole number greater than one-half of the total number of Trustees for the time being, or such higher number as the Trustees may from time to time determine for any particular business, provided that for the purposes set out in Article 19.3 the quorum shall be the nearest whole number greater than two-thirds of the total number of Trustees for the time being (the ‘higher quorum’).

19.3 The purposes for which the higher quorum shall apply are:

19.3.1 appointing a new Trustee;
19.3.2 removing a Trustee pursuant to Article 27.7;
19.3.3 appointing a Principal or Chair of Trustees;
19.3.4 transacting any business which the Trustees may from time to time declare to be extraordinary.

19.4 If the total number of Trustees for the time being is less than 12, the remaining Trustees may appoint further Trustees but they must not take any other decision.

20. Casting vote

20.1 If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal at a Trustees’ meeting are equal, the chair of the meeting has a casting vote in addition to any other vote he or she may have.

20.2 Article 20.1 does not apply if, in accordance with the Articles, the chair of the meeting is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.
21. Decisions without a meeting

21.1 The Trustees may, in the circumstances outlined in this Article, make a majority decision without holding a Trustees’ meeting.

21.2 If:

21.2.1 a Trustee has become aware of a matter on which the Trustees need to take a decision;

21.2.2 that Trustee has taken all reasonable steps to make all the other Trustees aware of the matter and the decision;

21.2.3 the Trustees have had a reasonable opportunity to communicate their views on the matter and the decision to each other; and

21.2.4 a majority of the Trustees vote in favour of a particular decision on that matter;

a decision of the Trustees may be taken by majority and shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been taken at a Trustees’ meeting duly convened and held.

21.3 Trustees participating in the taking of a majority decision otherwise than at a Trustees’ meeting in accordance with this Article:

21.3.1 may be in different places, and may participate at different times; and

21.3.2 may communicate with each other by any means.

21.4 No decision shall be taken by the Trustees in accordance with this Article unless a quorum participates in the decision-making process. The quorum for Trustees’ decision-making in accordance with this Article shall be the same as the quorum for Trustees’ meetings as set out in Article 19.

21.5 The Chair, or such other Trustee as shall be appointed by the Trustees, shall be the chair of the process of decision-making in accordance with this Article.

21.6 In the case of an equality of votes in any decision-making process in accordance with this Article 21, the chair shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any other vote he or she may have. But this does not apply if, in accordance with the Articles, the chair or specified Trustee is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum, voting or agreement purposes.

22. Conflicts of interest

Declaration of interests

22.1 Unless Article 22.2 applies, a Trustee must declare the nature and extent of:

22.1.1 any direct or indirect interest which he or she has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the Hall; and
22.1.2 any duty or any direct or indirect interest which he or she has which conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the Hall or his or her duties to the Hall.

22.2 There is no need to declare any interest or duty of which the other Trustees are, or ought reasonably to be, already aware.

Participation in decision-making

22.3 If a Trustee’s interest or duty cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest or a conflict of duties with or in respect of the Hall, he or she is entitled to participate in the decision-making process, to be counted in the quorum and to vote in relation to the matter. Any uncertainty about whether a Trustee’s interest or duty is likely to give rise to a conflict shall be determined by a majority decision of the other Trustees taking part in the decision-making process.

22.4 If a Trustee’s interest or duty gives rise (or could reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise) to a conflict of interest or a conflict of duties with or in respect of the Hall, he or she may participate in the decision-making process and may be counted in the quorum and vote unless:

22.4.1 the decision could result in the Trustee or any person who is Connected with him or her receiving a benefit other than:

(a) any benefit received in his, her or its capacity as a beneficiary of the Hall (as permitted under Article 5.4.1) and which is available generally to the beneficiaries of the Hall;

(b) the payment of premiums in respect of indemnity insurance effected in accordance with Article 4.30;

(c) payment under the indemnity set out at Article 7; and

(d) reimbursement of expenses in accordance with Article 5.4.2; or

22.4.2 a majority of the other Trustees participating in the decision-making process decide to the contrary;

in which case he or she must comply with Article 22.5.

22.5 If a Trustee with a conflict of interest or conflict of duties is required to comply with this Article 22.5, he or she must:

22.5.1 take part in the decision-making process only to such extent as in the view of the other Trustees is necessary to inform the debate;

22.5.2 not be counted in the quorum for that part of the process; and 22.5.3 withdraw during the vote and have no vote on the matter.

Continuing duties to the Hall

22.6 Where a Trustee has a conflict of interest or conflict of duties and the Trustee has complied with his or her obligations under these Articles in respect of that conflict:

22.6.1 the Trustee shall not be in breach of his or her duties to the Hall by withholding confidential information from the Hall if to disclose it would result in a breach of any other duty or obligation of confidence owed by him or her; and

22.6.2 the Trustee shall not be accountable to the Hall for any benefit expressly permitted under these Articles which he or she or any person Connected with him or her derives from any matter or from any office, employment or position.

23. Validity of Trustee actions

All acts done by a person acting as a Trustee shall, even if afterwards discovered that there was a defect in his or her appointment or that he or she was disqualified from holding office or had vacated office, be as valid as if such person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a Trustee.

24. Trustees’ discretion to make further rules

Subject to the Articles, the Trustees may make any rule which they think fit about how they take decisions, and about how such rules are to be recorded or communicated to Trustees.

25. Number of Trustees

There shall be at least 12 Trustees and no more than 15. At least one-third (or the nearest whole number greater than one-third) of the Trustees shall be clergy and at least one-third (or the nearest whole number greater than one-third) shall be lay communicant members of the Church of England or of a church in communion therewith.

26.3 Ridley Hall may nominate up to two of its own trustees to be Trustees of the Hall. Upon approval by the other Trustees of the Hall, they shall become Trustees of the Hall. Ridley Hall may at any time remove a person so appointed and nominate a replacement. Apart from the matters reserved under Articles 16 and 39, the Trustees appointed pursuant to this Article 26.3 shall have the same powers, and shall operate in every respect in the same way, as the other Trustees.

26.4 No person may act as a Trustee unless and until he or she shall have signed a declaration of his or her willingness to act which includes the statement “I cordially approve of the Objects for and the Principles upon which Wycliffe Hall has been established as defined in the Articles of Association and will as a Trustee of the Hall do my utmost, God helping me, to maintain the same.”

General

26.5 A Trustee may not appoint an alternate director or anyone to act on his or her behalf at meetings of the Trustees.

27. Disqualification and removal of Trustees

A Trustee shall cease to hold office if:

27.1 he or she ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the Companies Act 2006, or is prohibited from being a director by law;
